In Mysuru, Vijayanagar Police Inspector's house and Gundlupet Excise Inspector's residence under radar

Mysuru, Mar. 16 (RK&KS)- In a massive crackdown against officials that began in the wee hours of today, the Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) has been conducting raids against 18 Government officers at 75 different locations across Karnataka.

Over 100 officers and 300 officials of the ACB conducted raids in connection with disproportionate assets cases. In a press statement issued in Bengaluru, the ACB said that the raids are based on written and oral complaints received by the anti-corruption body.

In Mysuru city, the ACB sleuths raided Vijayanagar Police Inspector H.N. Balakrishna's house at Mahadeshwara Layout in Vijayanagar 2nd Stage and are scanning various documents.

ACB sources told SOM that the sleuths knocked on the doors of Inspector Balakrishna's house at about 6.30 am and all the family members including Balakrishna were present at the house.

Simultaneous raids were conducted on the houses of Balakrishna's father-in-law Chandregowda and the Inspector's another house in Holenarasipura town on Holenarasipura-Channarayapatna Road. ACB sleuths of Mandya and Hassan have raided the houses in Holenarasipura and are verifying documents, sources added.

It is learnt that Balakrishna, who is facing charges of owning assets disproportionate to his known sources of income, was serving in the same Police Station for three years.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Happiness is the building block of our being and for businesses that want to win the future. As science shows, when we're stressed, burnt out and depleted, happiness is the first to disappear. No one comes to a job to feel unhappy. So the missing link in the workplace happiness must be addressed. Happiness in action envisions a roadmap for organisations to create a culture of happiness for both employees and customers. Customers' happiness cannot be imagined in isolation with employees'. Only happy employees can make happy customers.

Happiness-based workplace in a business sense is 'the act of a company aiming for the happiness and well-being of their employees and customers, resulting in amazing employee/ customer-centric experiences'. It is about empowering employees to team up, give their best, agree to disagree and respond immediately and in real time — and always with happiness.

To be able to build and nurture the foundation of happiness, business leaders need to inculcate a sense of appreciation, gratitude, respect, and cooperation among employees.

One of the ways of putting happiness into action is to use tools such as yog, meditation and mindfulness. — T. K. Mishra in The Times of India

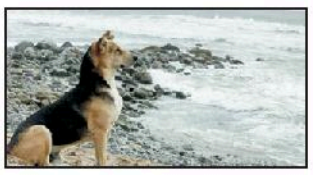
Dog waits for fisherman who never returned



Punta Negra: A dog by name Vaguito, spending his days on a beach in Punta Negra, Peru, waiting for his fisherman owner to return from his last fishing trip has melted the hearts of millions around the world.

Vaguito now lives in a house not far from the coast, with a woman who takes good care of him, but he used to belong to a fisherman who died at sea years ago. The dog, who used to accompany his master everywhere, saw him depart on his last fishing trip and is still waiting for him to return.

Everyone in the area knew Vaguito's tragic tale and that he always goes home after staring at the ocean for a few hours. But he always comes back the next day...

The photo of Vaguito longingly staring out into the ocean went viral on social media and his touching story has now spread across the globel and continues to melt people's hearts.

'Tesla Village' is home to over 40 Tesla cars

Panzhiga: A remote mountainous village in China's Yunan Province named Panzhiga, has been dubbed as "Tesla Village" for the unusually high number of Tesla electric cars owned by the locals.

While rapid charging stations are being built in cities and along busy roads, using an electric car in remote areas is considered inefficient. However, that theory is being challenged by a small mountainous village in China where Tesla is by far the most popular car brand.

Panzhiga's affair with Tesla appears to be genuine. Despite its remote location, far away from any urban center, the village is home to over 40 Teslas, and the people here couldn't be happier with their electric cars.

The village's first Tesla owner took locals on drives around Panzhiga, showing them features like the kinetic energy recovery function, which could offer better vehicle control and save battery power.

Street-lights not working on Ring Road

Sir,

It has been one year of my taking up residence in the city of Mysuru. In this period I have observed a certain lack of interest in road safety and security by both the authorities and citizens of this beautiful city. One of them is the street-lights not being switched ON during dark hours on the Ring Road stretches.

Due to higher traffic inside the city, many commuters use the Ring Road, albeit farther, and the least the city administration can do is provide them with safe passage.

Imagine a lone working woman who may have a vehicle breakdown in the dark places along the Ring Road stretch?

To further complicate this, the Ring Road is also barricaded in most places which makes all vehicles bottleneck at high speeds around them, resulting in fatal accidents.

I hope this will draw the attention to the authorities concerned to act pro-actively and protect the citizen's lives.

On Monday, journalist Bekkare Satish Aradhya, who had gone to a hotel for lunch, along with his friends Anand and Deviprasad, noticed a small box under the dining table.

When he took the box and opened it, he found a pair of gold earrings in the box. The earrings, worth about Rs. 50,000, weighed about 8 grams. Aradhya then went to the hotel owner and told him that he had found Rs. 2,000 near the table and asked the hotel owner to contact him on his phone in case anyone comes searching for it.

When he was about leave the hotel, Aradhya notices Taluk Panchayat Executive Officer (EO) C.R. Krishnakumar entering the hotel and Aradhya informs him about the gold earrings.

He then decided to wait for some more time in the hotel anticipating that the person, who had lost the gold earrings, may return to the hotel in search of it.

Mysuru, Mar. 16 (RK&KS)- Mysuru City Traffic Police, who are acting tough on those found driving and riding vehicles under the influence of alcohol, have registered 120 cases against the offenders in 15 days.

Following outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic followed by lockdowns, the Cops had suspended Breath Analyser Test (BAT) since two years and have commenced the test from Feb. 27, 2022.

The Traffic Police are stopping vehicles on major roads, junctions and Ring Roads and are conducting drunken driving checking from 9 pm to 11 pm.

Celebrate Women's Day to become voice for the voiceless: Dr. S.P. Umadevi

Mysuru, Mar. 16- Dr. S.P. Umadevi, a well-known litterateur of the city, felt that the importance of Women's Day is not just to speak about the anguish of the woman but to become a voice for the voiceless.

She was speaking in connection with International Women's Day organised by JSS College of Arts, Commerce & Science, Ooty Road, Mysuru, on Mar. 14.

She said that since the Vedic times to the most sophisticated modern age women have faced the same problem and exploitation. We should accept that women's exploitation is not the dominant factor in the matriarchal society as it is hard to forget the patronage of men for women empowerment and with their support, we should take our responsibilities as challenges.

In the due course the status of women has undergone a drastic change and her condition today is not unlike her predecessors, she said.

Even today many countries have refused to accept a woman as their leader but India is an exception where a woman is treated as a divine power for which we have to be grateful to Jyotiba Phule and Savitribai Phule who encouraged women's education.

Today there is an overall improvement in the life of women with a positive response from the society. She is provided with academic and economic support which was deprived to women once upon a time. At present there are many role models in the form of Indira Gandhi (late), Kiran Bedi, Sudha Murty, Nirmala Sitharaman and others. A woman is capable of balancing both personal and professional life, she noted.

The speaker observed that one cannot imitate men in all respects but with our limitations we should lead a positive life.

Prof. B.V. Sambashivaiah presided. Dr. H.C. Honnappa, Principal, welcomed. Sannidhi of I MSc., rendered the invocation. Dr. Kumudini Achchi, Assistant Professor of MSW, proposed a vote of thanks. Sujatha Kumari, Assistant Professor, Department of History, compered.

2021 Chamarajanagar District Hospital oxygen tragedy

HC panel gives clean chit to former Mysuru DC

'Rohini Sindhuri had no role in allotting oxygen to Chamarajanagar district'

Bengaluru, Mar. 16 (KMS & BCT)- The Fact-Finding Committee constituted by the Karnataka High Court (HC) to look into the Chamarajanagar COVID deaths has given a clean chit to former Mysuru Deputy Commissioner (DC) Rohini Sindhuri, stating she did not have any role in allotting oxygen to Chamarajanagar district.

Rohini Sindhuri

The three-member Committee of Karnataka State Legal Services Authority, headed by Justice A.N. Venugopala Gowda and Justice K.N. Keshavanarayana, retired Judges, and S.T. Ramesh, retired DG&IGP, was appointed by the High Court to probe the Chamarajanagar District Hospital tragedy where 24 COVID patients died due to lack of oxygen on May 2 and May 3, 2021.

The Committee has concluded that 24 patients died as the Chamarajanagar district authorities failed to provide oxygen to the patients on time between 11 pm on May 2 and early hours on May 3. The panel has dismissed allegations against Rohini Sindhuri where the officer was accused of directing her staff to first ensure that the oxygen requirements of Mysuru should be ensured before supplying oxygen to other districts.

The Committee also cleared the allegations against the former Mysuru DC that she did not respond well to the oxygen crisis in Chamarajanagar. The Committee stated that there is no substance in the allegations.

Committee recommendations

Suggesting a slew of measures to prevent such tragedies in the future, the Committee has stated that the compensation for the victims would be decided by the Court of Law. Records and the hard discs of CCTVs/DVRs have to be retained in the safe custody of the Chief Secretary, Government of Karnataka, the Committee has stated.

Recommending that a minimum buffer stock of oxygen to last for 24 hours should be ensured in all the hospitals, the Committee has stated that an officer higher in rank than the DC of the district should be appointed to coordinate the allotment and distribution of oxygen to various District Hospitals in future.

Onus on Regional Commissioner

The Regional Commissioner, Mysuru, should be the oxygen coordinating authority for Mysuru Division, since Mysuru bottling plants and refilling units cater to the requirements not only of Mysuru but also those of Mandya, Chamarajanagar, Kodagu and Hassan districts, the Committee has stated.

Maintenance of records regarding receipt, consumption and balance of oxygen stock should be uniform throughout the State and such a record should indicate the balance of oxygen stock on a real-time basis. The real-time oxygen balance should also be displayed digitally at all hospitals, the Committee has recommended.

GPS technology

It should be made compulsory that all vehicles carrying refilled medical oxygen cylinders should be installed with GPS. Such trucks should also have a covered body which should be locked and sealed before dispatch, to be opened by the consignees only, the HC panel has said.

The bottling plant, M/s Trinetra, in Mysuru city is non-functional. In times of high oxygen demand and shortages, the Government should take proactive steps to revive and ensure that non-functional bottling plants like Trinetra are made operational as early as possible, the Committee has observed.

All COVID hospitals must be provided with four levels of oxygen source — oxygen generation plants in all the hospitals having 100 or more oxygenated beds, liquid oxygen tanks of appropriate capacity commensurate with the demand of the hospital, jumbo cylinders and oxygen concentrators — the Committee has stated.

Basic evaluation of infertility and when should a couple seek advice

By Dr. Devika Gunasheela,
Infertility Specialist,
Cauvery Gunasheela
IVF Centre

In the modern society, with increasing education and career opportunity, young men and women are postponing child-bearing and parenthood to late thirties. Youngsters are also exposed to lifestyle changes like lack of physical exercise, change in eating habits which gives rise to obesity. Pollution and healthy disorders such as diabetes are all contributing to rise in fertility problems.

Infertility means difficulty in getting pregnant after 1 year of having regular intercourse without the use of contraception. About 15% of couple who are trying to conceive are not able to do so by the end of 1 year.

You should consider having an evaluation if:

• You have not become pregnant after 1 year of having regular sexual intercourse.

• You are older than 35 years and have not become pregnant after trying for 6 months.

• If there is a known cause for fertility problem like endometriosis.

• If periods are not regular.

Infertility evaluation may point to an underlying cause, which can guide treatment. It usually begins with a medical history, physical examination and few basic tests.

Evaluation of a woman will include a basic menstrual, sexual and medical history followed by physical examination and preliminary imaging and blood tests to evaluate uterus, fallopian tubes and egg reserve.

For men, evaluation usually includes medical history, physical examination and semen analysis to look for count, motility and appearance of the sperm.

Both men and women should be evaluated simultaneously. 8-10% of the times the problem can only be in man. 34-35% of the times the problem can be in both man and woman. Hence, both should be tested.

Fertility problems can cause:

IN WOMEN

• Age – As age advances, quantity and quality of the eggs start to decrease.

• Weight – Having overweight or severely underweight can cause imbalance in hormones, irregular periods and affect ovulation.

• Ovulation problems – PCO (Polycystic Ovaries) can give rise to hormone imbalance, irregular periods and there women may not ovulate regularly.

• Endometriosis – Large blood filled cysts in the ovary.

• PID – Previous pelvic inflammatory disease can cause scarring and damage of fallopian tubes.

• Large fibroids – May also cause problems in getting pregnant.

• Damaged fallopian tubes – By infection like tuberculosis (TB)

• Genetic abnormalities like translocation in the chromosomes.

IN MEN

• Infections like Mumps can damage testes and sperm production.

• Medicines like sulpasalazine, anabolic steroids, allopurinol, chemotherapy – Can have effect on sperm production.

• Inguinal hernia repair may cause blockage of the duct, which carry sperm and thereby affect fertility.

• Hyperprolactinemia

• Chromosomal abnormalities like Klinefelter syndrome.

• Overweight

No cause can be found in about 20% of couple with infertility.

Various tests are done for both men and women:

IN WOMEN

• Pelvic scan is done to assess size and shape of uterus and ovaries. It also helps to determine if there are structural abnormalities such as fibroids or ovarian cysts and also to detect ovulation.

• Blood tests for FSH (Follicle stimulating Hormone), E2(Estradiol), AMH (Antimullerian Hormone) to assess the ovarian function. Thyroid and prolactin hormones are also assessed as they can have influence on ovulation.

• HSG (Hysterosalpingography) – This is a first test to evaluate tubal patency.

IN MEN

• Semen analysis is done to assess the number of sperm, shape of the sperm and the way the sperm move.

• Blood tests – Certain hormones like testosterone prolactin which have influence on the sperm production and with having sex, may be tested depending on the problem and semen analysis report.

• Doppler scan – In some cases a Doppler ultrasound examination of the scrotum is done to look at blood vessels of the testes.

You may not have all of these tests and procedures. Some are done depending on the history or previous test reports.

Department to take action against 4,000 teachers

Bengaluru, Mar.16 (KMS&DM)- Stating that 4,317 teachers, who evaluated SSLC exam answer papers, have been found guilty of lapses, Minister for Primary and Secondary Education B.C. Nagesh said that action will be taken against all the guilty teachers.

Replying to a question by BJP MLC N. Ravikumar at the Legislative Council session here on Monday, Nagesh said that these teachers have been found to have committed lapses in evaluation of answer scripts for which they have been collectively fined Rs.51,26,600, based on the difference in marks.

Pointing out that of the total penalty, Rs.10,56,400 has already been collected from guilty teachers, the Minister said that action will be taken depending upon the extent of difference of marks ranging from 6 to over 20.

Maintaining that the difference of marks was discovered when re-evaluation of answer scripts was taken up, he said that the Secondary Examination Board had received a whopping 19,826 applications seeking re-evaluation of answer scripts, out of which 15,591 cases had a difference of less than 6 marks and 4,235 cases with a difference of over 6 marks. All the students who had a correction of over 6 marks were re-imbursed the re-evaluation fee of Rs.805, he added.

Continuing, Nagesh said that the Department would issue notification for appointment of 15,000 guest teachers in another ten days. Out of the 15,000 teachers to be appointed, 5,000 will be from Kalyana Karnataka region, he added.

Tragic plays leave a trail of thoughts for theatre-lovers

Mysuru, Mar. 16 (MK&DM)- The fourth-day of the ongoing Bahuroopi Raastriya Rangotsava (National Theatre Festival) at Rangayana on Tuesday, saw the staging of a few tragic plays that portrayed the travails of the effects of lockdown, the helplessness of a king who was declared impotent, a queen who ended her life scared by a divine message (Daivavani) as well as the life of Emperor Ashoka.

While Bengaluru's WeMove Theatre performed 'Lockdown' Kannada play, Odisha's Mig Kala Parishat staged 'Soorjyastaru Soorjodaya' Odiya play, Bengaluru's Prayoga Ranga performed 'Oedipus' Kannada play and Dharwad's Rangayana artists enacted 'Samrat Ashoka' Kannada play.

The Kannada play 'Lockdown' staged at Sampath Rangamandira highlighted the travails experienced by the common man on the havoc caused by COVID-19 pandemic.

The play also showcased how human relations were put to severe test during the Lockdown and the challenges that people faced. The play was directed by Abhishek Iyengar.

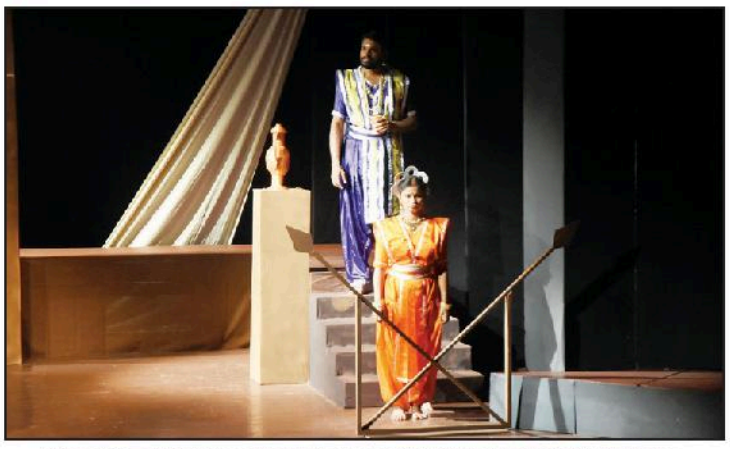
'Soorjyastaru Soorjodaya' performed at Bhoomigeeta explained the churning of a king who was declared impotent by the Palace doctors.

The play also portrayed how the Queen had to spend three nights with her old lover after a direction from Palace pundits. The play was adapted and directed by Dol Govind Rath.

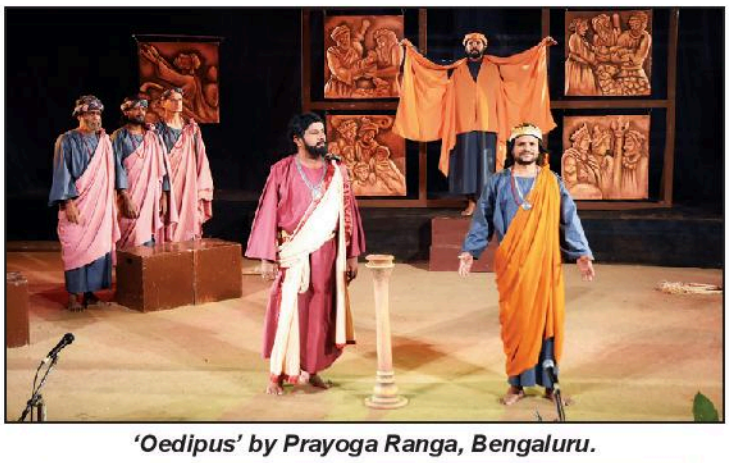
'Oedipus' play staged at Vanaranga, portrayed how a queen who was scared by a Godly message (Daivavani) handed over her son to a shepherd for killing him. The play was directed by Shashidhara Barighat.

Play 'Samrat Ahoka' enacted at Kalamandira, highlighted the bravery and life of Emperor Ashoka. The play was directed by Veena Sharma.

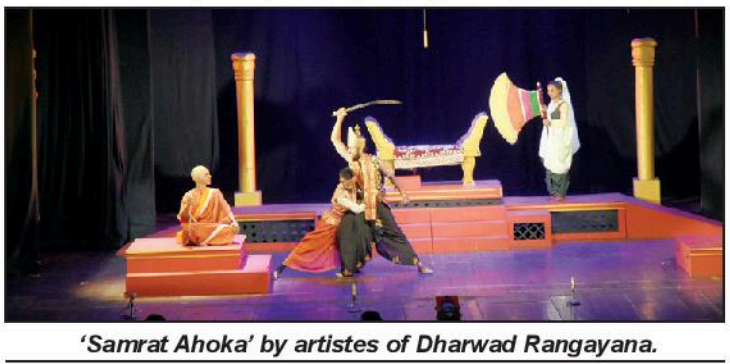
'Lockdown' staged by WeMove Theatre, Bengaluru, yesterday.



'Soorjyastaru Soorjodaya' by Mig Kala Parishat, Odisha.



'Oedipus' by Prayoga Ranga, Bengaluru.



'Samrat Ahoka' by artistes of Dharwad Rangayana.

Staging of political satire 'Comrade Babble' on Mar. 19

Mysuru, Mar. 16- Alan Kolski Horwitz's English political satire 'Comrade Babble' will be staged on Mar. 19 at RamaGovinda Rangamandira in Ramakrishnanagar at 7 pm under the aegis of Kalasuruchi.

There will be eight characters on stage, supported by 12 background artistes. The play is directed by political journalist and author Preethi Nagaraj.

Tickets are priced at Rs. 100. For details, contact Mob: 92435-81097 or 98451-12665, according to a press release from Kalasuruchi.

Synopsis

In the play, the dead body of Mephistopheles Medici Babble arises fresh from his end, a man apart. Babble, in this comedy of sorts, is far from the man he believes himself to be. He's back and he has some unfinished business (the irony) to attend to.

This play has been chosen for performance for its rather unconventional approach, and tongue-in-cheek debate on 'mega dreams' crossing over the thin line of 'megalomania' before biting the dust.

Questions over financial irregularities and public accountability over the 'Babble concept' which is a familiar term in corporate and political spaces across nations are often given a hasty burial. The persons that birthed them, become almost martyrs, leaving no lessons from which history could have registered a thing or two for future generations. And hence, history, inevitably and incorrigibly, keeps repeating itself.

WORD OF THE DAY

Fester

Pronunciation: FESS-ter.
Meaning: Fester means "to generate pus" or "to become worse as time passes."
Origin: Fester comes from Latin fistula, meaning "pipe" or "fistulous ulcer." Fistula, in English, refers to an abnormal passage leading from an abscess or hollow organ and permitting passage of fluids or secretions. The word's use as a verb meaning "to generate pus" influenced its use as a word implying a worsening state.
Example: "And even though there are many people who claim to have the solutions, I seriously doubt these challenges will be solved. I predict they will continue to fester within all organizations." — Christopher Thompson

THE ODD WORD

Fantigue

Anxiety or irritation.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Fool's gold

Meaning: The phrase 'Fool's Gold' is used when talking about an item that its owner believes to be valuable, but that really is not so.
Origin: Fool's gold is a yellow mineral that can be mistaken for gold. When a less-than-knowledgeable miner stumbles upon what he believes to be the mother lode only to discover that the mineral is worthless, he has been said to have come upon fool's gold.
Example: "That investment seemed to be a good one, but I found out that it was fool's gold when it crashed and burned."

QUOTE BOX

Truth like gold, is to be obtained not by its growth, but by washing away from it all that is not gold.—Leo Tolstoy
